

A note from Summit's Social Justice League: The Vow of Silence

On Thursday, March 8th, Summit Heights will be taking a Vow of Silence. This is an event during which students who believe that everyone should have their basic rights respected are going to be silent. Teachers will lead their classes in silent lessons to help raise awareness of the needs of children around the world. Different classes will pledge for different amounts of time based on what each teacher decides.

Some children do not get to use their voice and speak up for themselves. That's obviously not very fair. Summit Heights is joining forces with We Charity (formerly called Free the Children) to say, "They don't get to use their voices? Well, neither will we!" We think that this initiative is a powerful and effective way to make a statement with OUR silence. We Charity is an organization that works tirelessly to help children in developing countries that do not have the same rights that we enjoy, like getting to go to school.

We will need your family's help! Please bring in a donation of $2 - $5 by Thursday, March 8th at the latest. Your donation will purchase a sticker that you can wear to explain to all your teachers and friends that you are silent to stand up for the rights of other children. All proceeds will go to We Charity!

Thank you in advance for your generosity and support of this important cause.

Sincerely,

The Social Justice League
